

Catholic Travel 2011

written by Special to Arkansas Catholic |

Click on a headline below to read selected stories from the special travel section which appeared in the Oct. 29, 2011 issue of Arkansas Catholic.

Crystal Bridges will be world-class museum

Described recently in the Washington Post as “this country’s newest major cultural institution,” Crystal Bridges Museum of American Arts in Bentonville will open its doors Friday, Nov. 11.

Find a festival

They’re abundant across Arkansas this fall

Follow in the footsteps of the Virgin Mary in the Holy Land

While tracing the life of the Virgin Mary, one experiences a spiritual journey of personal discovery and reaffirmation of faith.

Historic bed and breakfast in Hot Springs: A museum you can touch

Make sure to add The Gables Inn Bed & Breakfast on your list of new places to stay the next time you visit Hot Springs.

Fun things in Hot Springs for the fall

Arkansas’ museums

While the Crystal Bridges Museum is Arkansas’ newest museum, there are dozens of museums across the state that educate and entertain individuals and families about history, art and even the air, water and land.