

Fast Facts

written by Special to Arkansas Catholic |

The following statistics are from Catholic schools in Arkansas for the 2013-2014 school year.

Enrollment

- Schools: 28 (Located in 18 cities)
- Total enrollment: 6,790 (down 2 percent from 2012-2013)
- Elementary enrollment: 4,837
- Secondary enrollment: 1,953
- Total enrollment in preschools: 619

Catholicism and race

- Percentage of Catholic students: 79.2
- Percentage of non-Catholic students: 20.8
- Percentage of white students: 87.8
- Percentage of Hispanic students: 11.35
- Percentage of Asian students: 3.67
- Percentage of black students: 2.18
- Percentage of two or more races: 2.99
- Remaining students are Native American, from the Pacific island region or unknown.

Staffing

- Total professional staff: 649
- Percentage of staff who are laypeople: 97
- Percentage of staff who are Catholic: 76.9
- Percentage of staff who are non-Catholic: 23.1

Tuition

- Average annual cost of educating one child in elementary school: $6,059
- Average annual cost of educating one child in secondary school: $7,680
- Range of tuition in elementary schools: $3,320 for Catholics to $4,661 for non-Catholics
- Range of tuition in secondary schools: $5,264 for Catholics to $5,955 for non-Catholics
(This does not include Subiaco Academy, a boarding school.)

For more information

To learn more about Catholic schools in the Diocese of Little Rock, contact:

Vernell Bowen, Superintendent

Catholic Schools Office

Diocese of Little Rock

P.O. Box 7565

Little Rock AR 72217-7565

501-664-0340

vbowen@dolr.org