

Catholic High Little Rock graduates 2017

written by Special to Arkansas Catholic |

Valedictorian

Dean Sublett, 18

Parish: Our Lady of the Holy Souls, Little Rock

Parents: Dr. Jackie and Luisa Sublett

College and major: University of Virginia, economics

Goal after college: My goal after college is to obtain a full-time front-office role at a bulge bracket bank and follow with a role in a private equity firm.

What was the best aspect of attending your high school? The best aspect of attending Catholic High was working for its newspaper. I enjoyed the Rocket Times as a creative outlet and a means to challenge myself as a writer and designer. Editing the Rocket Times was my most meaningful experience at the school by far.

What will you miss most about high school? I'll miss being able to walk into school knowing that I'll laugh at least once throughout the day.

Catholic High School hosted its graduation May 26 on the school's Roy Davis Field. The graduation speakers were seniors Duncan Louis Diaz and Luke Anthony Wewers. The master of ceremonies was Joseph Paul Bilger.

Jackie Dean Sublett was the valedictorian. The salutatorian was Thomas Anthony Howe of North Little Rock. The son of Dr. Laurence J. Howe and the late Karen Gangluff Howe, he plans to study civil engineering at the University of Notre Dame.
