

Scranton parish hosted March for Life

written by Submitted Information |

St. Ignatius Church in Scranton hosted its second annual local March for Life Sunday, Feb. 3. Parishioners from several local churches attended the march. Despite the cooler temperatures, nearly 100 participated in the procession, which was led around five city blocks, carrying "Choose Life" signs to signify the reason of this pro-life event.