

Catholic Daughters collect canned goods for Neighbor to Neighbor

written by Submitted Information |

In celebration of Catholic Daughter Day, members of Court Our Lady of Victory #564 in Pine Bluff enjoyed an afternoon of bunco and feasted on a wide array of food prepared by the Social Committee. Father Joe Marconi, state chaplain, joined the ladies for lunch. During the festivities, Mary Shannon Fikes became the newest member of the court. Those attending the Bunco Party were asked to bring canned goods for Neighbor to Neighbor, an organization that provides meals for those who are in need.
