

Broussard, Bielski lead Catholic men's event

written by Arkansas Catholic Staff |

The Arkansas Catholic Men's Conference will be held Saturday, Feb. 7 at Christ the King Church in Little Rock, featuring guest speakers Dr. Karlo Broussard and Mary Bielski. A Cajun from south Louisiana, Broussard gave up a career as an accordionist to pursue Catholic apologetics. With a doctorate in philosophy, Broussard is a speaker and apologist for Catholic Answers and a member of the Diocese of Tulsa. Broussard has been married for 22 years and has five kids. A national speaker and evangelist, Bielski has delivered talks to more than 100,000 Catholics and has headlined at some of the most renowned conferences and retreats across the U.S. She earned her master's degree in theological studies at Notre Dame Seminary in New Orleans. Visit arcatholicmen.com to register and learn more.