

Diocese watching bills impacting maternal care, education

written by Katie Zakrzewski |

Catholics in the Diocese of Little Rock are monitoring several bills in the Arkansas Legislature. These bills could impact ministries and programs, including pro-life and pro-family efforts and education. They are also expressing concerns over bills that conflict with Catholic teachings.