

At 95, Julius Greb still works hard and prays even harder

written by Katie Zakrzewski |

Julius Greb, a 95-year-old handyman and groundskeeper at the St. Joseph Center in North Little Rock, has worked there for nearly 69 years, dedicating himself to sharing the history and spiritual significance of the site with fellow Catholics.