

Obligated to fulfill deathbed wishes of Jesus

written by Bishop Anthony B. Taylor |

Bishop Anthony B. Taylor delivered a homily on Good Friday, reflecting on Jesus' last seven words. He emphasized the importance of forgiving those who harm us, caring for those left behind, affirming faith in God's victory, entrusting ourselves to God, completing our mission, and following Jesus' example.

Ask God to rescue you from power of darkness

written by Bishop Anthony B. Taylor |

The Feast of the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple, observed today, commemorates the Holy Family's adherence to Jewish law by consecrating Jesus to the Lord and blessing candles to honor Christ as the light of the nations.

Have a messy, dirty year, seeking Jesus Christ

written by Bishop Anthony B. Taylor |

The article examines the relationship between dirtiness and godliness, noting Jesus' birth in a stable with camels and livestock, and how godliness is linked to the human condition.

Don't assume all prayers are forms of worship

written by Bishop Anthony B. Taylor |

The Hail Mary prayer, derived from the biblical account of the Annunciation and Visitation, honors Mary and requests her intercession, but does not involve any worship of her.
