

Sadie Meadows shaking up Belles state softball

written by Dwain Hebda |

Sadie Meadows, a junior at Mount St. Mary Academy, transitioned from a large public school in Alabama to a smaller private school in Arkansas. She found a welcoming community and excelled as a catcher on the softball team, receiving interest from several colleges.