

Pope Leo calls for ‘united Church’ in a wounded world

written by Catholic News Service |

Pope Leo XIV inaugurated his papacy with a call for unity and reconciliation, emphasizing the Church's role as a leaven for a reconciled world. Ecumenical and interreligious guests, along with government delegations, attended the inauguration Mass held in St. Peter's Square.